G.O. Ms. No. 194

Date: 27-07-2010

Read the following:-

From the DG & IGP & CS., AP., Hyderabad,
Lr No. EB3/248/2010, dated 06-05-2010.

ORDER:

The Director General & Inspector General of Prisons & Correctional Services, A.P., Hyderabad, in the reference read above, has stated that at present 12 vacancies in the category of Deputy Superintendent of Jails are existing in Prisons Department. Out of these 12 vacancies, 11 vacancies are meant for direct recruitment and the same were notified to the APPSC. The process of selection will take long time and thereafter the new recruits have to undergo one year of institutional and practical training to assume the charge. By the time of filling up of all vacancies of direct recruits in the cadre of Deputy Superintendent of Jails as on 30-09-2011, another 11 vacancies will arise in the same category due to retirements and promotions.

2. The Director General & Inspector General of Prisons & Correctional Services, A.P., Hyderabad, has also stated that presently the Prisons Department is running with acute shortage of executive personnel at all levels. Especially in the supervisory cadre (i.e in the cadre of Deputy Superintendent of Jails) 9 District Sub-Jails Officer posts are vacant in the Department and it will lead to several escapes, deaths and untoward incidents as effective supervision is lacking.

3. The DG & IGP & CS., AP., Hyderabad, has, therefore, requested to accord permission to fill up (11) posts of Deputy Superintendent of Jails (Men) meant for direct recruitment by according promotions to the eligible Jailors (Men) on adhoc basis for strengthening the security of the Jails and smooth running of administration. The so promoted officers will be adjusted in the forthcoming vacancies caused due to retirements and promotions.

4. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby accord permission to the DG & IGP & CS., AP., Hyderabad, to fill up of (11) Deputy Superintendent of Jails (Men) meant for direct recruitment by according promotions to the eligible Jailors (Men) on adhoc basis by invoking Rule 10 (a) of A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, subject to condition that the persons so promoted in such vacancies shall be reverted as and when Direct Recruits report to duty and the services of such promotees shall not be regularized and their probation can not be commenced in the promoted post as the individuals are not promoted in the vacancies earmarked for promotees.
